Brainstorm & Idea Prioritization Template:

Our product team convened to unpack the everyday friction points encountered by overwhelmed shoppers and entrepreneurial sellers navigating online commerce. Our collective ambition is to architect a platform that harmonizes effortless browsing, intelligent personalization, and robust operational flow for both front-end delight and backend precision.

Step-1: Team Gathering, Collaboration and Select the Problem Statement

Our development team united to dissect common inefficiencies in online retail faced by hurried buyers and resource-limited vendors. With shared insights and product visioning, we committed to engineering an intuitive solution powered by the MERN stack—fusing user-friendly navigation, personalized engagement, and scalable backend logic.

Step-2: Brainstorm, Idea Listing and Grouping
